

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 20.

Rome, September 25.

THE Pope, who has been for some Days affected by his usual Infirmitie, is now better. And on the 17th he held a Consistory, wherein three Neapolitans were named Bishops of Satriano, Melfi, and Catanzaro, according to the Desire of the Emperour, and after the Remonstrances which have been made on that Subject by the Deputation of the Kingdom of Naples, where it had been proposed, that if the Pope longer delayed filling them up, the Revenues of them should be sequestred. Cardinal Ottoboni named the Abbot de Villenoy for Archbishop of Lyons; and Cardinal de la Tremouille, in the Absence of Cardinal Aquaviva, proposed four Bishops for Spain, who have been named by that King. A Courier sent from Parma by Cardinal Gozzadini is arrived, with Advice that his Eminence having given the Benediction to the Queen of Spain, and finished the Duties of Legate, he has laid down that Character.

From the Leiden Courant, dated Oct. 23.

Madrid, Oct. 2. Thursday last in the Afternoon the King returned from the Pardo to the Palace-Royal, and his Majesty attended by the Nobility went to the Church of our Lady d' Atoche, where Te-Deum was sung in Thanksgiving for the Reduction of Barcelona and the whole Principality of Catalonia. When that Ceremony was over his Majesty returned to the Pardo, but is expected to Morrow at the Palace of Buen Retiro, where he will remain till he hears of the Arrival of the Queen at Genoa, and then he will set out to meet her. The Officers of the Queen's Household who were gone for Valencia, have received Orders to go to Alicant, which Place is thought more convenient for her Majesty to Land at than the other. The Lord-Lucas, eldest Son to the Duke of Berwick, is installed Knight of the Order of the Golden Fleece, and he is also made Captain of one of the Companies of the King's Guards, in Consideration of his having signalized himself at the Siege of Barcelona. And the King has settled a Pension of 100000 Livres upon the Duke of Berwick, in Acknowledgment of the great Service he has done the Crown of Spain in the Reduction of Catalonia. Prince Pio of Savoy and the Prince de Cellamare returned hither on Saturday, having left Cardinal del Giudice at Bayonne, whose Affair makes a great Noise here.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, dated Oct. 24.

Paris, Oct. 24. There is no News from Catalonia except that all things are in Peace, and that 20 French Battallions will remain there. The King has done two things of Boldness and Rigour, the first is, the firing of 20 of the Chiefs of the Rebels, who having not stipulated with the Duke of Berwick particularly for their own Liberty, are thrown into different Prisons, whence they will be sent to the Indies, and condemned to work in the Mines. The Governors and Commanders of Barcelona and Cardona are of the Number, as also del Poal, Armengol, and Nebot's Brother, and those of the Deputation who appeared most obstinate in the Rebellion. The second is, he has sent back to the Marshal Berwick the Colours which that General took from the Rebels and had sent to his Catholick Majesty, (the King declaring, that although he hung up the Colours taken from Enemies in Battle, he would not so far honour those of his Rebellious Subjects,) with Orders to burn 'em in publick by the Hand of the Common Hangman, and with them the Robes which the Gentlemen of the Deputation used to wear in Ceremony, and break that Body as unworthy to wear them. All which has been executed by the Marshal accordingly.

From the Hague Courant, dated Oct. 23, 24.

Hague, Oct. 21. The Princess of Wales departed hence the 20th at 5 to the Evening in the State's Yacht, attended by the Deputies of their High Mightynesses who waited upon her to Rotterdam, where her Royal Highness went on board the King's Yacht the William and Mary, and this Day about Noon set sail with a fair Wind, being attended by the Squadron of his Majesty's Fleet commanded by the Earl of Berkeley. The Imperial, French, Spanish, and other foreign Ministers, waited on her Royal Highness while she was here, to Compliment her in the Names of their respective Masters. A Proclamation is sent to all the Provinces bearing Date the 12th Instant, to Declare the Peace between Spain and this State. The States of Holland have published an Order, forbidding all new Lotteries to be made by private Persons, upon the Penalty of 1000 Guilders for every Offence. This Day Baron Heema, the Imperial Minister, was in Conference with the Lords-Deputies of the States: And at the same time General Count Hompesch (who has been honoured by the King of Prussia with the Knighthood of the Order of the Black Eagle) had a Conference with some Lords of the Council of State. There is Advice that the Palatine Troops are withdrawn out of the Castle of Kestrich.
